

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Thomas Guise
Chief Executive Officer
Swedish Biogas International

Thomas Guise is chief executive officer of Swedish Biogas International (SBI), LLC, a Michigan based firm specializing in the development, ownership and operation of biogas production facilities. SBI is a State of Michigan Center of Energy Excellence (COEE) dedicated to the advancement of biogas / biomethane technology in North America.

Mr. Guise is a seasoned executive with over 20 years of managing P&L, business development, capital projects, research & development and plant operations. Experienced in leading $100 million plus product driven engineering, procurement and construction (EPC) companies with operations spanning 21 countries and 4 continents. Industries served during his career have included alternative energy, petrochemical, automotive painting & conveyance systems, environmental & energy products, industrial buildings, and infrastructure.

Mr. Guise holds a bachelor of science degree in mechanical engineering from the University of Michigan and a master of science degree in civil engineering - environmental from Wayne State University. He actively serves with a number of professional organizations and is a PMI certified Project Management Professional (PMP).